Game Summary:

Trojan Horse rebounds and gets back on track after their lackluster non-performance last week.
Team Cherry stands around watching the game for two periods before making a game of it in the third; yet, too little too late.
Five different goal scorers by Trojan Horse displays a balanced scoring attack.
The old veterans, Dan Broderick and Mark Stickney lead the way for Team Cherry, each scoring 1-goal, 1-assist.
Nick Romano takes three penalties in a game, all for slashing, and gets tossed from the game, a first for him in Over-30 league history (way to goon it up Nicky).
