Game Summary:

Captain's Mutiny earns their first win of the season with an all around solid team performance as four different players score goals.

Vulcan Grip has no late game heroics for this game as they see their two game winning streak end, giving up too many breakaway goals.

Elder Lopes leads the way from defense with his first goal of the season while adding an assist. His long range shot from the back parking lot of Hockeytown catches the goalie by surprise for the game's first goal.

Gary Wurlitzer doesn't wait until the playoffs to score his first goal of the season while adding an assist, to break open a close game in the third period.

Marty Makarewicz scores his first goal of the season.

Goalie Dale McIsaac loses his shutout bid with just a minute left in the game but plays solid all game stopping 31 out of 32 shots faced.

Joe Carlton scores his first goal of the season, and his team's only goal of the game.
