Game Summary:

Roadrunners comes back in the third period to pull out the win, as they remain hot winning their third straight game to move up the standings.
Devil's Disciples, playing shorthanded, are controlling this game until the third period when they run out of gas, losing their third straight game.
Tony Fosco steps up on offense, scoring 2-goals, ending his three game scoring drought.
Doug Morand moves up front and scores the game winning goal late in the game off a net front scramble.
Tony Medeiros has the highlight play of the game, starting in his own end on defense, rushes up the right side, goes around two defenders to score from in the right faceoff circle to beat the goalie while falling down.
Both goalies (Steve Taddonio and Scott Rosato) play outstanding in this game.
