Game Summary:

Roadrunners gets back to their winning ways, moving into sole possession of second place and only 1 game back from first place.
Vulcan Grip sees their one game winning streak stopped, as they can't generate any offense in losing a big game.
Fill in goalie Mike Viera stops all 25 shots faced for the shutout.
Joe Shannon's first period bomb from the right point on the power play holds up as the game winner.
Gary Goodwin stays hot, scoring his sixth goal in his last four games while extending his points streak to six games.
In a defensive battle between both teams, Roadrunners three defensemen outplay Vulcan Grip's and shutdown their offense.
