Barney & Friends | M*A*S*H

Game Summary:

Don't look now, but the M*A*S*H team is caliente hot after turning their season around from the first seven games. Winning four of their last six games played as they grind out a win.
Barney & Friends, after winning three straight games, finds themselves in a two game losing streak as they have their scoring chances this game but fail to convert.
Old man Mark Stickney elevates his all-around game and shines on offense, giving his team a lead by scoring 2-goals.
Joe Conary has his legs going all game that pays off with 2-assists and a strong forechecking game.
Tom Gallagher' steady leadership on offense has made an impact during the team's turnaround, as he scors his third game winning goal of this season.
Mike Duggan is very noticable this game, running hard and getting scoring chances, as he scores 1-goal and adds an assist.
Can we say he is hot? After going 11 games this season with no points, Naz has suddenly put back to back games together of recording an assist.
