Game Summary:

Black Magic wins their sixth game in a row as they break open a close game in the third period with a two goal strike in twenty seconds.
Marooned stays close the entire game but can't solve the defense of their opponent.
Derek Power is the hero of this game, breaking out offensively scoring 2-goals, with a big momentum shifting goal in the third period.
Doug Morand plays solid defense, but stands out with the offense with 1-goal and 2-assists.
Dominic Defrancisco's hustle pays off as the playmaker is the key to breaking this game wide open.
Doug Sedille scores a highlight reel goal, pulling the ball back in the slot, moving to the side and roofs it top shelf, looking like the Dougie from 10 years ago.
Tony Rolli and Manny Nunes each score for their team.
