Azores Express (4th seed) | M*A*S*H* (5th seed)

Game Summary:

In a back and forth close game, Azores Express rides the momentum from that big win last week to score three unanswered goals in the third period to pull away for the win. The entire team comes together at the right time, with their defense moving the ball out of their zone quickly.

M*A*S*H is right there at the start of the third period in a tie game but don't have their signature aggresive forechecking and running attack going, putting enough pressure on the opponents defense, as they can't counter their opponents scoring like they did the previous two periods.

Gino Tammaro stands out this game and is the key player on offense, factoring in on five of his team's six goals with a hat trick and 2-assists. Gino has his running game going and scoring touch on full display.

Gary Goodwin steps up in a big way on offense sparking his team, as he scores a fluke goal only thirty-seven seconds into this game then scores another big insurance goal late in the game, while setting up 2-goals when it matters in the third period when his team pulls away.

Old man veteran Mike Luise still has it as he scores 1-goal while setting up the key goal in the third period. Playoff experinece matters!!

Tom Gallagher does what he has done all season, being the driving force behind his team's offense in keeping this game close, as he scores a goal that temporarily puts his team ahead early in the second period, while also setting up the tying goal foureteen seconds earlier.
