Game Summary:

Gold Miners as a team play a solid all-around game, both offensively and defensively, break out to a three goal lead to put an end to their three game losing streak with an impressive win.
Loose Cannons are not a machine! Their four game winning streak and points in all games played so far this season comes to an end.
Dominic Defrancisco is the best player in this game, factoring in on two of his team's three goals with 1-goal and 1-assist, finally scoring his first goal of the season.
Elder Lopes jumps into the offense with a big goal from the point, his first goal of the season, giving his team some breathing room in the second period.
Gary Goodwin hustles the entire game and it pays off as he sets up two goals.
Jason Carrien scores his team's only goal.
Red hot Nick Doherty has his four game goal scoring streak stopped, as the Gold Miners keep him in check.
