Game Summary:

Jake-O-Lanterns extends their winning streak to two games, jumping out to a quick three goal lead and throws over 40 shots on net in consecutive games.
Snow White, decemated by injuries to impact players loses their second game in a row and can't recover after going down by three goals in the first five minutes.
Gino Tammaro has an impact game on offense, scoring 2-goals, including a short-handed strike to score the game's first goal.
Pic takes a break from making sure others are playing better and breaks out on offense with 1-goal and 2-assists.
Todd Bryson scores another key goal and also sets up another.
Nick Romano scores his team's only goal.
Matty Iannello has his best chance to score that elusive career leading goal but, 8 shot attempts (a few in close) and one breakaway chance late in the third period denied by the goalie, proves he is snakebitten.
