Game Summary:

White Lies pulls off the upset by continuing to score goals at key moments, their shorthanded defense steps up at the right time, as they shock the first place team and effectively take them out of their regular season style of game.

Black Magic struggles to generate offense and gives up some costly defensive zone coverage goals to seal their fate.

Dave Norton is the hottest player in the playoffs, scoring a hat trick, as his heavy shot powers through the goalie, with 8-goals scored in both playoff games.

Todd Bryson scores a huge insurance goal on the powerplay late in the game as his shot is taken just in front of the white goal line from the left corner that finds the far top corner (an incredible goal from an almost impossible angle).

Dominic Defrancisco hustles his way to factoring in on both goals his team scores with 2-assists.

Steve Medeiros's knuckle ball shot from the left point surprises the goalie for the game's first goal.
