Game Summary:
 Olive Pits finds themselves surprisingly in a scoreless game, but, manages to pull the game out to advance to the Finals again.
 Snow White plays with only 7 players, missing their top offensive player and both centers, and were one shot away from winning this game. For the team that ended up losing this game, it was one of the top team performances ever witnessed in league playoff history.
 Mike Luise makes a heads up veteran play in overtime, circling out from behind the net, has time to increase his shooting angle, then scores far side for the game's only goal.
 Goalie Dave Giusti stops all 24 shots faced to post the shutout.
 Goalie Scott Rosato stops 25 shots and does his part to keep his shorthanded team in this game.
