Game Summary:

Azores Express continues their winning ways as they score timely goals, breaking this game open in the second period to pull away for the win.
Hammertime is in this game but can't find consistency on offense to match their opponents scoring. Missing their top two defensemen takes its toll in the long run.
Gino Tammaro is caliente on offense as he continues to make an impact in his games scoring 2-goals while adding 1-assist. For Gino, he has his scoring touch going as he scores his sixth goal in his last two games.
Pedro Fontes scores a big insurance momentum goal halfway through this game, while setting up another goal.
George Medeiros scores the game's first goal late in the first period on a "stay with it" type of effort, as he shifts to the right on the goalie while contact is made with the defenseman, is falling down but still manages to sneak his shot past the goalie on a brilliant individual effort.
Not to be outdone, Rob Sheridan scores his first goal since returning from IR with sixteen seconds left in the first period as he holds the ball in close with defensemen around him and somehow manages to get a top corner shot off in the crease to briefly tie the game.
Goalie Jake Deehan is back, as he remains undefeated for the season with his second straight win.
Goalie Dale McIsaac is again solid in net for his team since returning from IR and keeps his team in this game, giving them a chance, with a depleted defense in front of him.
