Game Summary:

Dominions bounces back from an early season loss with a dominating complete game by the entire team, getting balanced scoring from three different goal scorers, getting back to their winning ways.
Hammertime sees their one game winning streak halted as their high powered first line gets shut down and kept off the scoreboard
Chris Torres is once again the spark on offense (from defense) for his team, jumping into the offense, giving his team an added advantage and sets up all three of his team's goals scored.
Rich Pelletier finally settles into his team's offense as he sets up his team's first goal while adding the insurance goal in the third.
Goalie Sean Roach stops all 27 shots faced to post his second shutout in three games played this season, as he continues to carry over his stellar play in net from the previous season.
