Barney & Friends Azores Express

Game Summary:

Azores Express gets back to their winning ways as their defense leads the way, scoring both their goals, and grind out a big win.
Barney & Friends sees their one game winning streak come to an end but earn a valuable point.
Alex Leone scores the game winning goal in overtime, as he jumps in the offense on the right wing, stealing the ball from the defenseman, cuts across the middle and beats the goalie from outside the white line with a defender all over him.
Mike Surette scores the game's first goal with a long shot from in his own zone that catches the goalie off guard, extending his goal scoring streak to two games.
Dave Costa, playing more and more like the Dave Costa of old in controlling his defensive zone, scores the game tying goal halfway through the game, making a heads up play jumping off the point down the middle to beat the goalie.
Both goalies Jake Deehan and Scott Rosato match each other save for save keeping this a low scoring game, each giving their teams a chance to pull out a win.
