Azores Express	M*A*S*H

Game Summary:

Azores Express puts an end to their three game losing streak by doing something they hadn't done during that streak and scored more than one goal, as they scored four unanswered goals in the second period coming back from an early two goal deficit.
M*A*S*H can't keep that winning momentum going as they failed three times to hold onto a two goal lead in this game, making some costly defnsive turnovers in the second period that cost them this game. Did someone picking the wrong bench before the game, disrepect the winning streak and cost them?
Gino Tammaro breaks out offensively in a big way during the second period with 2-goals and 2-assists to lead his team's offense.
Steve Medeiros make an impact on the offense, scoring his first goal of the season while adding 2-assists.
Tim Burke plays defense and factors in on every goal his team scores with 5-assists.
Tom Gallagher is the leader and playmaker on offense, setting up three goals.
