Azores Express | Hammertime

Game Summary:

Hammertime breaks a three game losing streak by scoring first and building on that lead. They jump out to a three goal lead in the first period, and hold on for a much needed win.
Azores Express can't genrate any offense the first half of this game, but mount a furious comeback late in the third period to tie the game, only to give up the game winning goal with less than a minute to play.
Patrick Spencer carries his team, stepping up by scoring 2-goals while adding an assist.
Lee Nogler factors in on every goal his team scores with 1-goal and 3-assists.
Pedro Fontes is the best player for his team, making an impact on offense, factoring in on every goal his team scores with 1-goal and 2-assists.
Elder Lopes is the quarterback on defense and jumps into the offense with 1-goal and 1-assist.
