Hammertime	Phoenix Rising

Game Summary:

Phoenix Rising gets back to their winning ways, posting their third win in their last four games and move up to third place in the standings, as they erase a one-goal deficit after one period, scoring the last four goals of this game.
Hammertime loses their second straight game as they continue to struggle in close games, not gaining any momentum, by not getting consistent offense and scoring over three periods. Right now, they are a one line team with the second line only contributing 1-goal over five games.
Mike O-Neill is the difference maker this game for his team, factoring in on four of the five goals his team scores with 2-goals and 2-assists.
Jose Silva returns from a three game absence to ignite his team's offense by scoring 2-goals, while adding a key assist.
John Kelleher plays a key role for his team's offense in the second period, helping them erase a one-goal deficit to take the lead, by scoring 1-goal and adding 1-assist.
Lee Nogler is a bright spot for his team, scoring 1-goal and adding 1-assist.
Goalie A J Larabee shuts the door in the last two periods to ensure his team's victory.
