Game Summary:

M*A*S*H scores four unanswered goals to jump out to a commanding lead, then withstands a late third period scoring outburst by their opponent, to win their second straight game and move out of the cellar.
Phoenix Rising down by four, mounts a furious comeback late in the game, but falls just short to lose their second straight game.
Jon Brown, comes back after missing a game, to make an immediate impact on his team leading the way with 2-goals while adding 1-assist, factoring in on the first three of his team's four goals scored.
Tom Gallagher quarterbacks the offense with 1-goal and 1-assist.
John Mastrocola has suddenly emerged as a sniper as he scores the game winner extending his goal scoring streak to two games. Has he refound his game?
Goalie Dave Giusti single-handedly keeps his team in a scoreless game during the first period, stopping all 12 shots faced, some of these prime scoring chances, and plays a big role in the final outcome of this game.
Mike Duggan and Leo Trombley each score 1-goal and add 1-assist.
