Game Summary:

Black Magic is caliente, winning their fifth straight game, breaking a tie game open late in the second period, while continuing being very stingy on goals against. White Lies hangs tough for two periods but runs out of gas missing bodies. Tony Medeiros has a break out game on offense, scoring a hat trick while adding an assist while putting to an end his five game goal scoring drought. Dominic Defrancisco scores 1-goal and adds 2-assists, as his goal is a highlight reel goal, breaking a tie game, winning the battle out front with a bigger opponent, never giving up, and scoring while lying on the floor. Dan Poirier Jr comes to play, scoring 2-goals and was a threat to score everytime he touched the ball. Patrick Spencer is the playmaker for his team this game, setting up three goals.
