Game Summary:

Phoenix Rising, missing three of its defensemen, uses a forwards filling in strategy to compensate, and ride the scoring of one player to get back to their winning ways.
 Hammertime plays shorthanded on offense, yet make a game of it, by playing hard but fall just short.
 Mike O'Neill finally breaks out offensively from a four game scoring drought to score 4-goals, singlehandedly scoring every goal for his team, to lead the offense. Mike is now tied for the most goals scored this season.
 Lee Nogler takes on the leadership for his team, leading by example, as he scores 2-goals while adding 1-assist, and factoring in on every goal scored by his team. Lee continues to show his team leadership, experience and confidence.
 Matty Iannello continues to produce this season with another 2-assists, as he sets up the game winner on the powerplay.
 Goalie A J Larabee returns to action after a 3-game hiatus, shaking off some rust, while playing a solid game helping out his depleted defensive core.
