Game Summary:

Marooned starts to heat up making its playoff push, as they win their third straight game and increase their position for second place in the standings. White Lies goes down by three goals but has their scoring chances in this game, but can't solve the opposition goalie.

Manny Nunes has a big game on offense, breaking out with 2-goals. Mike Duggan scores 2-goals and adds 1-assist to increase his lead in the leading scorer's race.

Goalie Dale Mclsaac loses his shutout with just over a minute to play, but is a big reason for his team's win, stopping multiple in close scoring chances with timely key saves.

Ray Nickerson plays the role of playmaker in setting up two goals. Jim Barber scores his team's only goal.
