Game Summary:

Team Timeout:

Barney & Friends break a two game losing streak with a hard working win, as they get contributions from every player that impacts their victory. Hammertime loses their third straight game with limited scoring opportunities and shots but still manage to keep this a close game. Mike Duggan is starting to heat up on offense, factoring in on all of his team's goals, with 2-goals and 3-assists, as he makes a big jump up the leading scorers race. Ray Nickerson returns from extended IR (missing 6 games) to score the key goal of this game from the left wing boards inside the circle with a perfectly placed top corner far side sniper shot, opening up a close one-goal game, after setting up a goal less than two minutes earlier. Patrick Spencer scores 2-goals to keep this game close. Leo Trombley breaks a four game goal scoring drought with a goal late in this game, while making a key play on the goal that opens up this game late in the second period. Angelo De Luca extends his point streak to nine straight games with an insurance goal halfway through the third period, while also setting up the game's first goal. Very quietly Kato has scored four game winning goals, tied for most this season.
