Game Summary:

In a matchup of the top two teams, and first place on the line, Dominions grind out a solid win, winning their third straight game, as their defense leads their offense. With this win, Dominions clinch the number 1 playoff seed.
Phoenix Rising plays with only 6 players in this big game, with three of their defensemen out, and have their worst shot production on offense with only 12 shots on net. Even with this loss, Phoenix Rising clinches the second playoff seed.
Ray Dow emerges as the hero of this game, scoring two slapshot bombs from the point, his second goal coming only thirty seconds in the second period after the opponent ties the game. Its a huge momentum swinging goal.
Tony Medeiros scores the key insurance goal thirty seconds into the third period to dash any comeback hopes.
Matty Iannello shows off those hands and skills scoring his team's only goal early in the second period, momentarily tying up this game.
