Game Summary:

Royal Family comes back from a two goal deficit to put an end to their three game losing streak and play a solid team game two weeks in a row.

Tealsters Union give up control of the game as they give up three unanswered goals, losing their third straight game.

Joe Carlton makes a difference when it matters in the game, scoring the game winner and setting up a goal.

Mike Luise plays the role of the playmaker for his team to help bring them all the way back with 2-assists.

Ray Dow plays a big part in his team's offense, scoring a goal while setting up another.

Elder Lopes has a monster game quarterbacking the defense, while also a huge goal at the end of the second period, to get his team back into this game.
