Game Summary:

The Pylons win a big game, their second win in a row, to move into second place overall in the standings.
 Shark Attack is in freefall, winless in their last four games.
 Shawn Miville scores 2-goals including the game winner at the end of the second period when his captain makes a strategic move with twenty seconds to play, switching up one player to get Swan off the bench for the ensuing face-off.
 Pat Pirone plays his best game of the season, scoring 1-goal while applying a strong fore-checking game.
 Niko Vramis keeps his Shark Attack team in this game with 1-goal, 1-assist.
