Game Summary:

Black Magic keeps their momentum going heading into the playoffs with their third win in a row.

White Lies gives up two quick goals in the first minute and never recover nor get their offense going, losing their third straight game.

Nick Romano, with his team only having four forwards, goes back in time when he was a youngster, as the star of this game, scoring 1-goal and setting up three others.

Dominic Defrancisco plays like vintage Dom, hustling all over the rink, scoring 1-goal and adding 2-assists.

Paul Firicano quarterbackes the shorthanded defense and jumps into the offense with timely scoring of 1-goal and 1-assist.

Patrick Spencer gets things started for his team, scoring only twenty-five seconds into this game, and assisting on another goal.

Dan Poirier Jr returns from an IR lower body injury and scores his team's only goal.
