Game Summary:

The talk around the rink prior to this game had this game a blowout for Phoenix Rising. But Sinjin the cat called it and someone forgot to tell Azores Express who have gotten hot at the right time. Azores Express, in a huge upset, stuns the second seeded team, by shutting them out and controlling this game with everyone buying in and running from the opening faceoff, while the defense follows the winning script from last week and moves the ball up in quick transition. Phoenix Rising, a huge favorite entering this game, never gets on track, getting outworked and outthustled, giving up shots trying to make too many passes. changes up the lines, and never settles into their ball control offense. Gino Tammaro stays hot on offense leading the way, as he scores the key opening goal of the game, four minutes in. In two playoff games, Gino has scored 4-goals. Goalie Jake Deehan stands tall and turns into a wall in net, stopping all 28 shots faced, and plays a big role in this win with a shutout. Pedro Fontes breaks open a close one-goal game two minutes into the third period with a sniper shot from the right circle, that gives his team more momentum. Cappy seals the victory with a perfectly placed banked shot off a faceoff deep in his defensive zone (after the opponents time out) that caroms of the left boards and angles into the open net.
