Game Summary:

In a defensive game, Tealsters Union, leading most of this game, overcomes giving up the tying goal with fifteen seconds to play, to score early in OT off a defensive breakdown, to win the game.

Royal Family doesn't generate much offense, choosing to sit back, depend on their defense and goalie to kep this game close, then loses track of defensive coverage in OT, to lose in OT.

Defenseman Steve Iacoviello, not known for jumping into the offense, makes a calculated decision to carry the ball, dump it in and chase, that pays off only seconds later with the game winning goal in front of the net.

Angelo De Luca is the offense for his team, scoring both goals, including the game tying goal with only fifteen seconds to play.

Rob Sheridan has a quiet game but still controls the play, scoring 1-goal and adding 1-assist.

Leo Trombley scores the game's first goal and helps set up the game winner in OT.

Defenseman John Hines has an outstanding all-around game and sets up both his team's goals (making a heads up play on the game tying goal).

Goalie Jeff Deharo is locked in keeping his steam in this game, making some timely saves and not allowing rebounds.
