Game Summary:

Unstoppable? Are the Roadrunners exactly that? Winning their sixth straight game to open up the season. It sure looks that way until one of the other 5 teams steps up to them and competes.

Devil's Disciples goes down quickly by three goals in the first period and never recover as they continue to win a game then lose a game.

Doug Morand plays forward and lights it up breaking open this game with 2-goals and 2-assists.

Mike Duggan is held in check as a goal scorer but shows his versatility by setting up three goals to remain tied at the top of the leading scorers race.

Dominic Defrancisco scores 2-goals and adds 1-assist, scoring the game's first and last goals, while remaining tied at the top of the leading scorers race.

Rich Pelletier breaks the shutout with his 6th goal of the season, extending his point scoring streak to six games.

Tony Medeiros scores at least a goal in five of his last six games.
