Game Summary:

Omerta is on fire totally outplaying their opponent as they score three power play goals, winners of their last three games, as they appear to have recovered from their early season issues, and continue to climb up the standings.

Last Call is in freefall, losing their second game in a row, while struggling to find leadership in their game.

Old Man Nick Romano breaks out offensively, showing the youngsters how it is done, scoring 2-goals (including his first of the season), while adding an assist.

Paul Sequeira extends his point scoring streak to six games, scoring 1-goal and adding 3-assists, while moving into second place in the leading scorers race.

Pic extends his multi-point game streak to three games, scoring 1-goal to break this game open, while adding 2-assists.

Ray Dow is hot from the point, as he scores another goal, his fifth in his last three games, to move into first place in the defensemen leading scorers.

George Medeiros scores 1-goal and adds an assist to extend his point scoring streak to five games.

Not having Dave Costa or Dan Broderick at this game leaves a big hole in leadership for Last Call.
