Game Summary:

In a battle of titans and first place, Shockwave holds on in a game that has a playoff-like feel, winning five of their first six games. Snow White's three game losing streak comes to an end as a little bit of frustration sets into their game. Paul Correia scores the game winner high out on the left wing. Derrick Power picks the right time to score his first goal of the season. Chris Ducharme scores a late goal giving his team hope for a comeback. Goalie Sean White is caliente, again standing out in net, and comes within a minute and a half from keeping his shutout streak at 6 periods.
