Game Summary:

Top Secret emphatically puts an end to their three game losing streak with a come from behind win, scoring five unanswered goals. They break out from their season long inability to score goals as a team with a scoring outburst.

Last Call starts off strong early scoring two quick goals but can't extend the lead and pay the price to extend their losing streak to three games.

Top Secret has a balanced scoring attack as five different players score a goal.

Marty Makarewicz fills in after not playing in the league for years and doesn't miss a beat, scoring his team's first goal, and runs the second line offense from the center position.

First goals of the season are scored by Jamie Kehoe, Alex Leone and Carlos Machado.

Gino Tamaro scores a goal in his second straight game.
