Game Summary:

Marooned gets back to their winning ways with a hard earned win in OT in a classic defensive low scoring game.

Black Magic sees their three game winning streak stopped, but shows a lot of character in tying the game after the opposition scores so late in the game.

Mike Duggan continues his pursuit of the goal scoring season record books with both goals scored for his team.

Pedro Fontes ties the game with just a minute to go to send it to OT.

Both goalies Dale Mclsaac and Scott Rosato match save for save and stand out the entire game.

Chris Torres is the quarterback on defense for his team and sets up both goals.
