Game Summary:

Sandbaggers wins their second game in a row in a comeback victory making the most of their limited scoring opportunities when it matters late in the game.

A tough loss for Black Magic as they outplay and shut down their opponent for the first twenty-seven minutes of the game, but, earn a valuable point.

Garvin Chan wins it in OT, as he also sets up two goals.

Paul Sequeira factors in on every goal his team scores with 2-goals while adding 1-assist.

Derrick Power has a great game with his hustle and forechecking that pays off with his first goal of the season.

Steve Medeiros gives his team the early lead with his second goal of the season.

Dave Giusti weathers the storm and scoring opportunities by the opponent, keeping this a close game throughout, giving his team a chance to pull out the victory.
