Game Summary:

In a stunning upset, Royal Family scores three goals late in the third period to win their second game in their last three. Black Magic sees their three game winning streak ended, as they take a 1-0 lead into the third period but can't pull away. Gary Goodwin scores the game winner late, as the ball is saved by the goalie pops into the air, and Gary bats it in with perfect hand-eye coordination. Steve Silveira quarterbackes the defense but stands out on the offensive side, as he factors in on every goal his team scores, with 3-assists. Goalie Mike Viera fills in, stands on his head, stops 37 out of 38 shots faced, and is the number 1 star of this game.
