Game Summary:

Marooned avoids the upset by coming back twice from one goal deficits, as they tie the game with thirty-six seconds to play, then win it in OT, extending their winning streak to five game, and move into first place.

Sandbaggers play their best game of the season, but can't hold on with the lead, as they lose their fourth straight game, but earn a valuable point in the standings.

Mike Duggan (who else?) makes things happen when it matters, factoring in on every goal his team scores, scoring the game winner in OT on a great move and shot in close, while setting up two goals.

Ray Nickerson comes alive on offense, scoring 2-goals, including the tying goal with only thirty-six seconds to play, breaking his six game goal scoring drought.

Paul Sequeira once again is the engine that drives the offense for his team, scores a goal.

Garvin Chan breaks his seven game goal scoring drought with a huge goal late in the game.

Both goalies Dale Mclsaac and Dave Giusti are under seige all game with shots (38 to 36) and both standout in this game.
