Game Summary:

Drama Queens breaks open a close game scoring 4 unanswered goals in the second period to finally defeat the team that has given them all their losses this season.

Olive Pits loses their fourth game in a row. Not a good sign as they head towards the playoffs.

Manny Nunes factors in on four of his team's five goals scored with a hat trick and 1-assist, moving into second place in the leading scorer's race.

Don Maccini plays his usual versatile game shifting up front, acting as the playmaker scoring 1-goal and setting up another.

Ray Dow scores a goal, but like Swifty faded fast trying to keep his hold as the top scorer, as the other contenders passed him on the outside.

Mike Luise scores 2-goals.
