Game Summary:

Dominions gets back to their dominant winning ways with another blowout of an opponent, as they have now routed an opponent in five of their last seven games. If you do not make the commitment to run with these guys you will end up being another blowout victim.

Barney & Friends suffers a total complete collapse as a team and have no answers for their opponent, as they get blown out after going three straight games playing some solid team hockey.

Manny Nunes returns to action with a statement game, playing a big role in his team's relentless offense by scoring 2-goals while setting up four goals.

Captain Dominic Defrancisco, who was quiet on the game sheet the last two games, breaks out on offense with 2-goals and 4-assists.

Derrick Power, out four of his last five games on IR recovering from a medical procedure, is in the right place at the right time, reaping the benefits of his team's scoring feast, as he scores his first 2-goals of the season.

Mike Roberto scores his team's only goal and his first goal of the season.
