Game Summary:

Azores Express goes down by a goal in the first period but scores the next four unanswered goals (three in the third period) to pull away with their second straight win and win a big game to remain tied for first place in the standings.

Phoenix Rising plays shorthanded, missing three key players on offense. has the lead after one period but can't match the offense of their opponent after that, having lost three of their last four games after winning four of their previous five games.

Gino Tammaro leads the way on offense for his team, with 2-goals and 2-assists, to keep pace near the top in the leading scorers race.

Old man Mike Luise is the playmaker for his team as he shows off those passing skills with 1-goal and 3-assists, as his assists break open a close game in the third period.

Cappy who has been very quiet on offense all season, follows up last week's three assist performance with another three assist performance while playing solid defense, to play a big role in his team pulling away for the win.

Steve Medeiros scores his first goal of the season.

Goalie Jake Deehan settles into lockdown mindset after the first period stopping all 15 shots faced giving his team time to get their offense in gear.
