Game Summary:

FINALLY! After eight weeks of futility and only earning one point during that time, Last Call makes a stand with a hard fought overtime win, overcoming a very late game tying goal by their opponent, and score quickly in overtime to emphatically throw that damn monkey off their backs and kick it to the curbside.

Top Secret stages another last minute comeback only to fall short in overtime, but earn a valuable point in the standings to hold on to fifth place in the standings.

Joe Shannon has a monster game, factoring in on every goal his team scores with 2-goals and 3-assists.

Gino Tammaro is the hero scoring the overtime winner, while adding an assist.

Jamie Kehoe does it again for his team, scoring a game tying goal late in the game from the left point, with only thirteen seconds left to play, and also sets up another goal.

Angelo De Luca plays his best all-around game this season, setting up three goals.

Garvin Chan plays ironman hockey, playing both offense and defense, while scoring 2-goals.

Mark Stickney is the playmaker when it matters in the third period, and sets up three goals.
