Game Summary:

M*A*S*H stays the hottest team in the league, winning their fourth straight game to leap over their their opponent and move into third place overall in the standings, as they score (we believe) the fastest goal ever scored in overtime, four seconds in.

Phoenix Rising loses a tough close game and are trending in the wrong direction heading into the playoffs, losing four of their last five games.

Steve Silveira receives a clean draw off the faceoff to start overtime, and before the fans have returned to the places around the rink, he quickly releases a slapshot from his own clearing line that beats the goalie glove side.

Old-Time Hockey Weekend Game Sheet Summary

Tom Gallagher is the playmaker down the stretch for his team, bringing them back, scoring the tying goal halfway through the third period, then cleanly winning the faceoff in OT to set up the game winner.

Matty Iannello scores the game's first goal late in the second period from a bad angle on the side of the net.

Eddie Chin morphs into a sniper early in the third period as his shot from the left circle cleanly beats the goalie.

Mark Stickney scores late in the second period to keep his Pink Shirt Challenge chances alive, barely on life support, heading into the final game of the season. Can he do it? Only if he either scores a hat trick or puts up 5-assists.
