Game Summary:

Tealsters Union wins a big game down the stretch run, winning their second game in a row and seperating themselves up the standings.
 Marooned loses their second game in a row as they give up three straight goals at the end of the first period and early second.
 Rob Sheridan plays a big factor in this game, with 2-goals and 1-assist, to lead his team's offense.
 Tim Burke transforms into a sniper with a highlight level shot just under the cross bar, that breaks open a close game.
 John Carey scores 2-goals on laser shots from the point, and is the offense for his team.
 Mark Stickney carries the second line to score his team's first goal while adding an assist.
 Mike Duggan can't gets his goal scoring game on track as he is held in check, putting an end to his quest for 30-goals scored in a season.
