Game Summary:

Sandbaggers does it again, for the second time this season, coming back from 0-2 down in the third period, to win the game in overtime. They win their second straight game to move up into 4th place.

Black Magic has this game in hand entering the third period, but costly penalties and taking their foot off the gas pedal does them in for a disappointing loss.

Garvin Chan scores 2-goals, the first to get his team back into this game in the third period, the second is the game winner in OT.

Dave Costa plays ironman hockey and factors in on every goal his team scores with 3-assists.

Paul Sequeira quiet most of this game, comes alive in the third period and overtime setting up 2-goals.

Dominic Defrancisco give his team a cushion scoring early in the second period.
