Game Summary:

Captain's Mutiny wins their third straight game, putting some distance with their second place standing from their competitors.

Devil's Disciples continue to play 500 hockey and lose this game late in the third period, giving up three goals.

Tony Rolli scores a hat trick and adds 1-assist, scoring 9-goals in his last five games, to officially establish his position as his team's top goal and points scorer and go to player.

Matty Iannello scores another goal in three straight games, this one a key shorthanded goal late in the second period to break open a close game, while setting up a big insurance goal late in the game.

Don Maccini, can you believe it, finally scores his first goal of the season after ten games, with a nifty deke on the goalie in close.

Pat Pirone returns to action and makes an immediate impact by scoring 1-goal and adding an assist, breaking a five game pointless streak.

Lee Nogler extends his goal scoring streak to three games, scoring four goals during that span.
