Game Summary:

Gold Miners gives up control of the game and a two goal lead late, but score a powerplay goal in overtime to extend their undefeated streak to four games. Last Call plays one of their better games this season and manage to earn a valuable point even though their losing streak extends to six games in a row. Dominic Defrancisco leads the offense again for his team with 2-goals, 1-assist, with his third straight multi-point game of 2-goals, 1-assist. Lee Nogler scores 1-goal and adds 2-assists, to extend his point scoring streak to five games. Gino Tammaro nets a hat trick, to lead his team's offense. Cappy plays solid defense and jumps on a defensive turnover to score the game winner in overtime, while also adding an assist. Rick Cassano's hustle pays off as he sets up three goals. Gary Goodwin plays hard the entire game, forechecking and backchecking while setting up 2-goals to extend his point scoring streak to five games.
