Game Summary:

Devil's Disciples break open a close game with two unanswered goals in the second and third periods, then hold on for a big win moving into third place. They finally break out offensively by scoring goals.

Vulcan Grip sees their two game winning streak halted, as they mount a furious comeback scoring three goals in the last four minutes, but come up just short.

Lee Nogler leads the way scoring 2-goals while adding 1-assist.

Tony Medeiros scores 2-goals and adds 1-assist.

Pat Pirone makes a difference in the second and third periods scoring 1-goal and setting up two others.

Pedro Fontes breaks out offensively, once again leading his team, scoring a hat trick (his fifth goal in the last three games).

Tim Burke continues to add scoring with another goal in his last three games, while setting up two others.

Manny Nunes plays his second impressive game, once again looking locked in on offense and working his playmaker magic, setting up three goals.
