Game Summary:

A great intense hard played game between both teams, equally deserving of winning this game. HABITUAL Complainers has the momentum early, then Broken Promises has the advantage in the middle of the game, until HABITUAL Complainers recains this with a late goal.

Dominic Defrancisco, held in check all game and drawing a lot of attention, manages to break free and score the game winning goal late in the third period on a redirection shot in close.

John Leite's goal top shelf from the left wing boards is the key to this game, igniting the comeback for HABITUAL Complainers.

Nick Romano scores both goals for Broken Promises.
