Game Summary:

Top Secret comes out running and never lets up all game, as they control the play, keeping the pressure on the opponents defensemen, with a perfect game strategy, while scoring three straight goals in the first period. Omerta starts off strong but can't keep up with the pace as their defense can't adjust to the constant forecheck of their opponent, and they don't generate sustained offense.

Tony Fosco plays his best game, breaking this game open in the first period and shifting the momentum, scoring 2-goals, adding 1-assist.

John Mastrocola's hustle all game sets the tempo for his team, setting up 2-goals.

Mark Stickney scores a huge confidence building goal for his team, less than a minute after the opponent scores the game's first goal.

Carlos Machado moves up front, makes plays all game, and gets rewarded with a goal adding insurance.

Nick Romano scores both his teams goals.

Paul Sequeira is the set up man, assisting on 2-goals.
