Game Summary:

Loose Cannons barely gets by win a win, not playing their best game, not putting any offensive pressure on their opponent and not playing with any energy. They will need another game plan for the Semi's.

Last Call plays shorthanded and scores some timely goals with a chance to win the game, but give up a powerplay goal and a late third period goal. They are one play and shot away from having a chance to pull off the upset win.

The game is controlled by each team's defense between the two white lines. Neither team generates sustained offense.

Jason Carrien, playing solid defense all game, jumps on a defensive turnover by the opponent with five minutes to play, and buries his scoring chance for the game winner.

Angelo De Luca factors in on both goals his team scores with 1-goal and 1-assist.

John Kelleher scores the game's first goal late in the first period.

Sergio Costa's long-range shot early in the third period ties the game, surprising the goalie and somehow rolls into the net.

Tim Burke takes advantage on the powerplay late in the second period.
