Game Summary:

Tealsters Union, outplayed for most of this game, storms back in the third period (led by their secondary players), after losing their best player, to shock their opponent and move on.
Royal Family has control for most of this game, has a one goal lead, then is shocked by a two-goal scoring outburst within fourteen seconds by their opponent late, to get bounced from the playoffs,
Leo Trombley steps up to lead the way in the third period, with his teams best player out of the game, scoring 1-goal and setting up both goals late in the third period.
John Kelleher ignites the comeback late in the game when all seems lost, first tying the game on a big clutch goal, then setting up the game winner fourteen seconds later.
Tom Gallagher plays a big role in his team's offense, scoring the game's first goal then setting up another in a three goal first period outburst.
Ray Dow plays solid defense all game, then moves up front late in the game to show off his scoring touch to net the game winner.
